

Mas des Alpilles

Les Alpilles - Provence

Mas des Alpilles

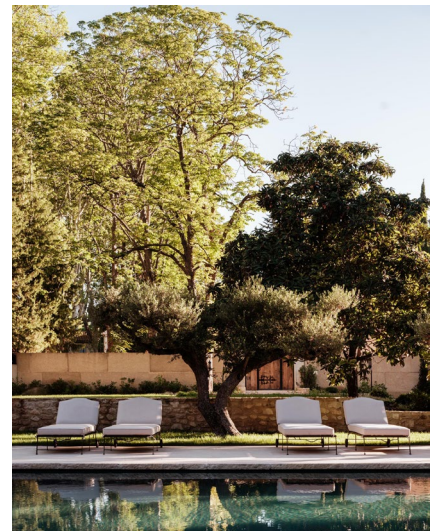

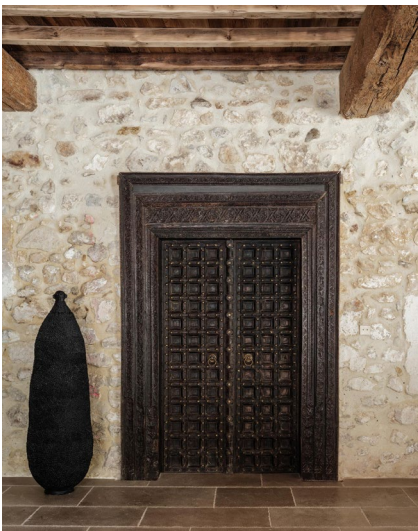

PROVENCE

“The house within a village”

A private address

Mas des Alpilles is located in the heart of the Alpilles, and embodies the philosophy of regenerative tourism showing a passion for restoration and preservation.

Enter an oasis of calm at your private address within a quaint and petite village. Where time still stands still, a village with a community of just 600, still exists, with a butcher and one cafe. Find peace and turn back time, living in your own provencal landscape in the house within a village you wouldn't want to leave.

Mas des Alpilles is in an area with Roman history dating back to 981. The archaeological remains found in the surrounding area bear witness to this rich period, marking the landscape with indelible traces of the past.

This link with Roman antiquity nourishes the very design of the Mas, where the past and the present blend harmoniously to offer a unique experience.

Beyond the villages, are the impressive landscapes waiting to be explored on foot, 2 wheels or more. Les Alpilles are for those who wish to combine exploration and relaxation, with authenticity as a core value.

Mas des Alpilles

Region: Les Alpilles, Provence, France
Sleeps: 14

Nearest town: Saint-Remy-de-Provence
Setting: Tranquil ambiance, medieval village
Experience: Authentic provencal living

Overview:

- Outdoor swimming pool
- Luxurious fittings and furnishings
- Brand new for Summer 2024
- Currently off-market
- Private within a small village
- Secure parking and gated
- Large gardens
- Tennis Court

P R O V E N C E

Located in the heart of the Alpilles, the home embodies the philosophy of regenerative tourism showing a passion for restoration and preservation.

Mas des Alpilles is a celebration of local art and craft with local paintings, lighting, ceramics and sculptors showcased around the property.

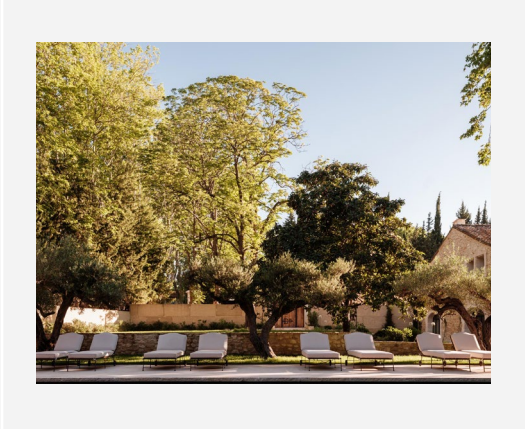

Exquisitely designed and beautifully landscaped, this home is one of Provence's stand out homes for 2024.

Time to sleep

The Mas offers seven rooms and suites, all air-conditioned, with private bathrooms equipped with walk-in limestone showers. Each room is unique, combining luxury and comfort, with king-size beds, Vispring mattresses, dark parquet floors.

The walls have local tapestries and natural organic materials, with lime plaster, in soothing shades as well as little details that make the difference, like the copper bathtub with lion feet, which recalls what the French art of living was, at a certain time.

Sumptuous living

The interior decoration of this Provençal farmhouse mixes traditional material and creations giving it a unique decor. The heavy beams and old doors combine with blown glass lighting.

The rugs are woven from thick natural jute echo the raffia lampshades, topped with golden fringes, which adorn lamps with artisanal ceramic or scalloped wrought iron feet.

Entertaining

You will all enjoy getting together around the large table in the dining room, and why not ask for a chef's dinner.

Mas des Alpilles is the perfect set up to be entertained as and when you wish with hotel services allowing you to focus on your time with family and friends.

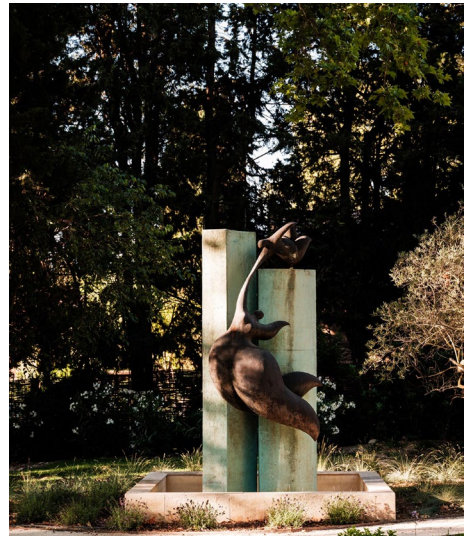

Living Space

For those who prefer cocooning, two large living rooms await, with cozy sofas, in blue tones, in harmony with the furniture found at second-hand dealers in the region.

Unique pieces of contemporary design, while a large fireplace in stone will guarantee a warm atmosphere, whatever the season.

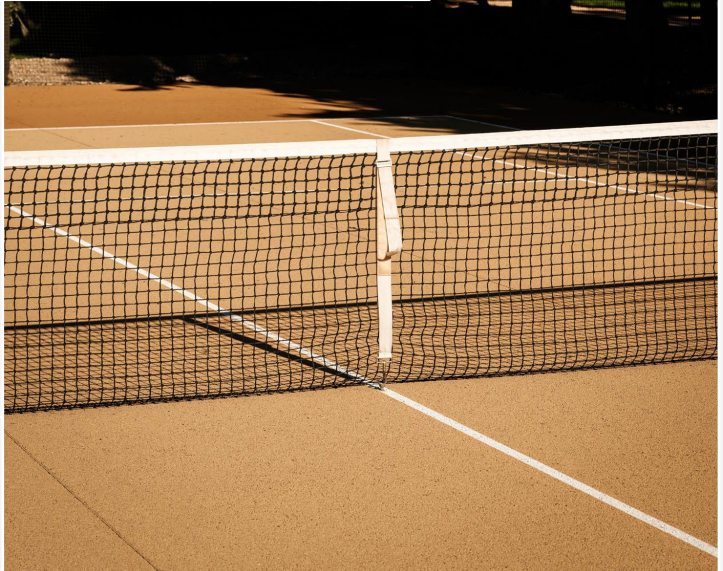

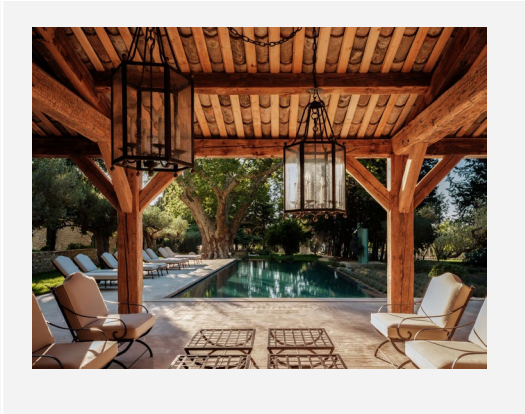

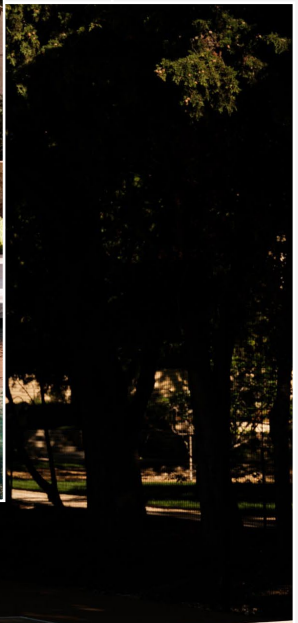

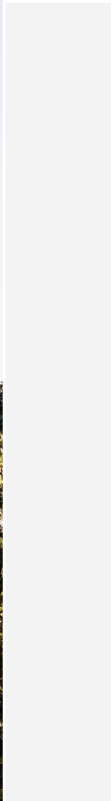

Relaxation

The relaxation areas include an elegant pool house and an 18-meter infinity pool, a 150m² fitness center with its spa and massage area, all offering an oasis of relaxation.

The estate also has a tennis court, allowing guests to actively entertain themselves while enjoying the picturesque surroundings.

W E L L N E S S

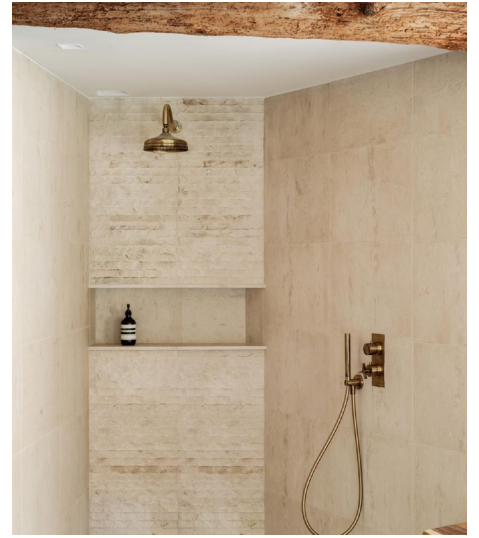

Provençal Living

Mas des Alpilles is not just a place to stay; it is an immersion in the history, art and culture of Provence. Through its careful restoration and commitment to sustainable tourism, it offers its visitors a chance to connect with the past while enjoying complete modern comforts.

This gem is a destination of choice for those seeking an authentic and regenerative experience.

INCLUDED IN YOUR STAY

Luxury accommodation

Villa Manager (non-resident)

Concierge

Daily cleaning

Luxury bathroom amenities

Private pool and tennis court

Pool towels

Supply of bed linen, changed weekly

Supply of towels

Provision of electricity, water

Cleaning at the end of the stay

Exclusivity in Provence.

Mas des Alpilles

PROVENCE - FRANCE